

European Union General Data Protection Regulation

The European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (the GDPR) requires that the personally identifiable information of European Union citizens for whom we have accounts or provide other services be held to strict information security and safeguarding standards. By way of federal and internal data security safeguards and procedures currently in place, IRCO Community FCU adheres to the spirit and intent of the GDPR.

Effective May 25, 2018